

Put these
in a logical order using clues from the context
of the sentences.

IT'S NOT LONG BEFORE HE SITS

A

WHEN I ASK HIM TO.

B

When I see him sitting, quickly, I say "Sit!" and give him the treat.

C

I need another plan,
so I wait until he sits on his own.

D

After a while, I say,
"This isn't working."

E

I want to train my puppy to sit while I put on his leash.

F

I show him a treat
and I say, "Sit!"

G

But he is so happy
about the treat he
just stands there
wagging his tail.

Put these
in a logical
order using clues from the context
of the sentences.

E I want to train my puppy to sit while I put on his leash.

F I show him a treat and I say, "Sit!"

G But he is so happy about the treat he just stands there wagging his tail.

D After a while, I say, "This isn't working."

C I need another plan, so I wait until he sits on his own.

B When I see him sitting, quickly, I say "Sit!" and give him the treat.

A IT'S NOT LONG BEFORE HE SITS WHEN I ASK HIM TO.